ment of a disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to construct the cause which produces the head-ache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose Anti-kamia Tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. One fablet every one to three hours gives comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuragia and particularly the headaches of women.

PEACE PLEAS OFFERED IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES

Universal Supplications in Obedience to Proclamation of Pope

Washington Congregations Take Part-Sermons Preached, With

Peace Sunday was observed by all Catholic churches of Washington, as well as the principal cities of the country yesterday in response to the proclamation of Pope Benedict setting aside Sunday, March 21, as the date for universal prayers for the cessation of the war in Europe and the restoration of Cathelic churches of the District of Columbia, as well as in those throughout the United States. On every altar the biessed sacrament was exposed during the day, and sermons preached at the masses had as their theme the awfulness of the war now raging in Europe and the devout prayer of Christian peoples for its cessation and the peedy restoration of peace.

Special Programs Observed.

The special peace services at St. Aloysius began with the masses yes-terday morning and continued until the solemn closing and solemn benediction at the 7.30 o'clock service last night. High mass was sung at 10 o'clock by Rev. John Multigan, S. J. who also preached the sermon. The various societies of St. Aloysius each spent an hour in prayer before the blessed sacrament exposed on the altar. The children's hour was from 3 to 4 p.m., the sermon being preached by Rev. Edward Sweeney, S. J. The sodalities observed the hour of prayer from 4 to 5 o'clock, and the League of the Sacred Heart from 5 to 6 o'clock, the sermons being preached by Rev. William J. Brooks, S. J. At the closing and benediction at 7:30 p.m. the litany of the saints was read, and special prayers for peace were offered. The church was crowded at all of the services. tion at the 7.30 o'clock service last

At St. Patrick's Church mass was celebrated hourly from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m., when Rev. Martin Egan, assisted by two student priests from Holy Cross College, sang high mass the peace sermon being preached by Rev. J. M. McNamara.

Rev. James E. Krug, assisted by Revs. William J. Carroll and Hugh Curiy, celebrated the masses at St. Paul's Church, 15th and V streets northwest, the peace sermon being preached by Mgr. James F. Mackin.

At St. Vincent de Paul's, South Capitol and M streets, high mass was celebrated yesterday by Rev. John O'Reilly. Peace prayers continued throughout the day, and the blessed sacrament was exposed from early mass until 8 o'clock last night. The closing services last night were conducted by Rev. E. J. Griffen of the Paulists' Mission House, Catholic University, assisted by Rev. O'Reilly and Rev. Walsh. Rev. P. J. O'Connell, the pastor, preached the peace sermon at Curry, celebrated the masses at St. Rev. Waish. Rev. P. J. O'Connell, the pastor, preached the peace sermon at the 10 o'clock mass. High mass, followed by peace ser-mons, was sung at St. Ann's Tenley-town, at 10:30 o'clock by Father Edwin.
